

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FOURTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

IN RE: 1999/2000 Administration Plan for the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NUMBER 99-09

✓ WHEREAS the Chief Judge of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit, pursuant to Rule 2.050, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, has the responsibility to develop an administrative plan for the efficient and proper administration of all courts within the circuit, and

✓ WHEREAS the Chief Judge, through the plan, ensures the administrative organization of the circuit to effect the prompt disposition of cases and effective use of court resources,

NOW THEREFORE it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the following 1999/2000 Administrative Plan for the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit will be in effect from the date of signature of this Order until another plan is developed:

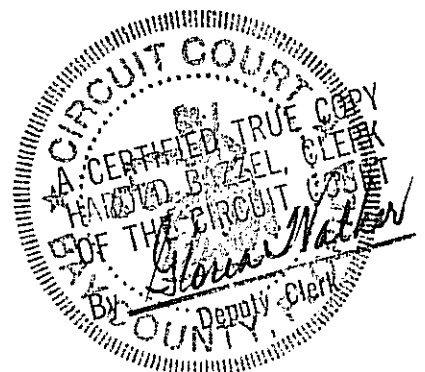

PURPOSE

This administrative plan outlines the administration of the courts for the circuit as established by Rule 2.050, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, and describes the organizational structure of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

The Chief Judge of the circuit, the Honorable Judy Markham Pittman, exercises administrative supervision over all courts with the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit and is empowered with judicial and administrative authority over the judges and officers of the court of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. The Chief Judge is responsible to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, the Honorable Major Best Harding.

The Chief Judge also oversees trial court administration as outlined in Rule 2.050, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, and shall ensure an appropriate and sound organizational structure for the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. In this capacity, the Chief Judge shall directly supervise the Trial Court Administrator.

In support of the administrative responsibility, the Chief Judge shall sign all Fourteenth Judicial Circuit administrative orders. Moreover, administrative orders originating from an administrative judge or committee chairperson shall be signed by both the administrative judge or chairperson, and the Chief Judge.

If the Chief Judge is absent from the circuit or is otherwise unavailable, the Honorable N. Russell Bower will be appointed acting Chief Judge. Should he and the Chief Judge be absent during the same period, the Honorable Don T. Sirmons will be appointed acting Chief Judge.

ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE APPOINTMENTS

The Chief Judge shall appoint administrative judges to ensure efficient and effective management of the circuit's various divisions. The administrative judges for each division are responsible for the general administrative duties circuit-wide in the particular subject matter area of the division. They are also responsible for monitoring time standards for their divisions. Each administrative judge should report at each Judges meeting. All matters that need resolution before the next Judges meeting should be brought to the attention of the Chief Judge. These appointments and specific duties related to the division are as follows:

Criminal Law Division – Judge Dedee Costello.

Civil/Family Law Division – Judge Michael C. Overstreet.

Juvenile Law Division – Judge William L. Wright.

ADMINISTRATIVE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Administrative Advisory Committee is created to advise the Chief Judge on administrative affairs of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. This committee will be responsible for but not limited to the following specific duties:

- ▶ Trial court staff attorneys' employment procedures, supervision, and assignments, and
- ▶ Annual review of the certification report of the circuit's caseload statistics which calculates the need for new circuit and county judgeships.

The committee membership, shall be appointed by the Chief Judge, and includes the following:

- ▶ The Honorable Judy Markham Pittman, Chief Judge;
- ▶ The Honorable Glenn L. Hess, Administrative Circuit Judge for Bay County;

- ▶ The Honorable William L. Wright, Administrative Circuit Judge for the remaining five counties;
- ▶ The Honorable William A. Cooper, Jr., Administrative County Judge for Bay County and
- ▶ The Honorable Woodrow W. Hatcher, Administrative County Judge for remaining five counties;

As determined by this committee, the Honorable Glenn L. Hess shall provide direct supervision to the trial court staff attorneys.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF THE TRIAL COURT ADMINISTRATOR

The Trial Court Administrator of the Circuit, Jennifer Dyer Wells, exercises administrative supervision over all court programs for and on behalf of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. Appointed by a majority of the judges of the circuit, the Trial Court Administrator is an "at will" employee of the Florida State Courts System and serves at the pleasure of the judges of the Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. The Trial Court Administrator reports directly to the Chief Judge of the Circuit.

The Trial Court Administrator provides direct supervision to all state and county court employees assigned to the circuit on behalf of the judges. Also, the Trial Court Administrator develops the circuit's budget requests for each of the counties and the state and coordinates the circuit's response to American with Disabilities Act requests.

OTHER COURT COMMITTEES AND RELATED APPOINTMENTS

For purposes of circuit-wide input and decision-making, the following circuit-wide committees are created. Each court committee chairperson should report at each Judges meeting. These committees and appointment are as follows:
